Under the inspiring theme “Mera Patiala, Main Hi Swara”, Modern Senior Secondary School, Patiala organised an enlightening awareness session on 10 December 2025 for students of Grades 1 to 9 and 11. The initiative aimed to instil a sense of responsibility, environmental awareness and civic consciousness among young learners.

The programme was led by the school’s proud alumnus Mr. Harinder Singh Lamba, along with his dedicated team, who engaged students through meaningful discussions and interactive activities.

The session began on a soulful note with a heartfelt poem recitation by Manleen Kaur of Class 8, beautifully capturing the essence of the theme. This was followed by a serene Shabad presentation by the school choir, creating an atmosphere of positivity and reflection.

warmly welcomed the resource persons and students, setting the tone for the impactful session.

The team then conducted an interactive quiz, making learning engaging and enjoyable. Students were sensitised about the importance of segregating dry and wet waste, adopting simple methods of recycling and reusing materials, and understanding the need to reduce waste in daily life. The most inspiring moment of the programme was when all students collectively took an oath to keep Patiala clean, green and beautiful, pledging to contribute responsibly towards the city’s cleanliness and pride.

The programme concluded with a gracious vote of thanks by Principal Mrs. Manpreet Sharma, who appreciated the efforts of the resource team and encouraged students to practice these values in their everyday lives. The session ended on a patriotic note

Vice Principal Mrs. Meenakshi Tewari with the National Anthem.
