September 5, 2025

On 5th September, Modern Senior Secondary School, Patiala, observed Teacher's Day in a significant manner by dedicating it to the well-being of flood-affected people in Punjab.

The school community, comprising staff and students, visited Gurudwara Dukhniwaran floods.

As a gesture of compassion, the Management and staff also contributed (75000Rs) to the Flood Relief Fund, reaffirming their solidarity with those in distress. This thoughtful observance of Teacher's Day reflected the true spirit of teaching—instilling

Sahib, where Sukhmani Sahib Path, soulful Kirtan, and Ardas were performed with devotion.

The atmosphere of reverence inspired feelings of peace, humility, and collective prayer for the speedy recovery of families impacted by the empathy, responsibility, and a commitment to service to humanity.

The day left an indelible impression on everyone, blending spirituality with compassion and setting an inspiring example for society to follow.
