Modern Senior Secondary School, Patiala, successfully organised a Parent–Teacher Meeting (PTM), complemented by an engaging display of Holiday Engagements and Subject Projects. The vibrant exhibits reflected the creativity, innovation and sincere efforts of the students, earning participation and overall development. Teachers also highlighted the importance of consistent guidance and support at home to nurture students' learning and well-being.

The event concluded with a staff meeting, where teachers reflected on the feedback and appreciation from parents and visitors.

The PTM provided a valuable platform for meaningful one-to-one interactions between teachers and parents. Discussions focused on students' academic progress, behaviour, suggestions received from parents.

The constructive exchange of ideas reaffirmed the school's commitment to strengthening the teaching–learning process through effective collaboration between teachers and parents.
